On the way, stop at Kanyaka Station Homestead Ruins and see what's left of this once massive sheep and cattle station of about 950 square kilometres. Late afternoon, arrive at Rawnsley Park Station, your home for the next two nights.

Rawnsley Park Station overlooks the southern side of Wilpena Pound and provides the perfect base for exploring the Flinders Ranges. Late afternoon, enjoy a Sunset on the Early this morning join the 3km Daybreak Loop Walk where your experienced local guide will introduce you to the unique plants and wildlife of Rawnsley Bluff. Learn how the ancient sea floor has been uplifted and eroded to create this amazing landscape. Complete your morning with a cooked bush breakfast.

Spend the rest of the day touring around the southern Flinders Ranges including the local sights, picturesque Bunyeroo and Brachina Gorges and peaceful walks taking through the creek beds.

This evening, join a tour of the old woolshed and enjoy a 3-course Lamb Tasting food experience where local lamb from the property will be showcased, and prepared in three different and delicious courses. Clare Valley wines will be matched with each course. The dinner will finish with South Australian port and local cheeses (vegetarians will be catered for). Overnight: Rawnsley Park Station.

Day 3: Sunday or Tuesday

Farewell your hosts and Rawnsley Park Station and continue your tour through the small outback copper mining town of Blinman. You'll get to enjoy one of their Signature Antipasto Platters for lunch.

After lunch visit Nilpena Station for a fascinating tour of the working Cattle Station, red sand dunes and the Ediacaran Fossil Site, where you'll witness fossils that are over 500 million years old, which have been preserved in the ancient sea-floor.

Start your day with a delicious cooked breakfast before departing Parachilna and travel south with the western side of the Flinders Ranges in view. Stop at the old railway township of Quorn, before continuing your journey through to the charmingly secluded Clare Valley, one of Australia's oldest wine growing regions. With its picturesque, rolling countryside, unique geography, and climate you will see why it is a premium grape growing area.

Here you will enjoy wine tastings and lunch at the family owned Paulett Wines Cellar Door and Bush Devine Café inspired and partly sourced from the adjacent Bush Food Garden. Located in the Polish Hill River region of the Clare Valley, Paulett Wines is named after the Polish Settlers of the mid 1800's.
